ALL SYSTEMS GO FOR FESTIVAL

All is in readiness for Altona's Arts Festival, timed to begin at 2 p.m. sharp on Sunday.

The official opening ceremony will take place at the Civic offices, conducted by the Mayor, Cr. Doug. Grant.

A programme will be on sale outlining the many events set down for the 13-day festival.

The programme's cover bears the new arts festival motif, designed by ex-councillor Mr. Kas Jurga.

Every taste will be catered for at the festival. Entertainment ranges from pop festival to chamber music, from plays to films.

One notable display will be the Altona Historical Society display of clubs and societies which began in Altona before 1946.

The society is still seeking badges, uniforms and other souvenirs for display purposes.

Another highlight will be the talent quest, which will be held over consecutive Fridays, April 23 and 30, at the Altona Working Men's Club.

Popular television personality,
Nancy Cato, is bound to be a hit with the smaller Altona citizens.

The festival committee has arranged five appearances, which range from puppet shows, to drama, to folk singing.

Little boy with big achievements, Stephen Smith, 9, of Grieve Highway,
West Altona, shows off the medals he won for Westona at the Victorian Little Athletics Championship on March 28.
He won a gold medal for the under 9 - 200 metres event and a silver medal for the

ANOTHER SCHOOL WITH HEADACHES

Another western suburbs high school is suffering a serious teacher-shortage problem.

Altona North Technical School badly needs more maths, science and art teachers.

The Principal of Altona North Technical, Mr. McGuinness, has told the Star that classes at the school have been kept running.

But he said: "It has taken a great deal of manipulation to do this and our teachers are over-worked."

"Each teacher is supposed to handle 30 periods a week, but they are doing well in excess of that."

"And piled on that they also have work to correct, administration, lesson preparation and numerous other duties."

"Our teaching staff here is dedicated, but they can only do so much."

Only three weeks ago the Minister for Education, Mr. Lindsay Thompson, told The Star that no schools in the merely because travelling across the city was not an appealing prospect.

He did not say if children in this district would have to face poorer education prospects because teachers were not prepared to travel.

Mr. McGuinness also agrees it's a problem to attract qualified teachers to the western suburbs.

But he gives more reasons that the Education Department.

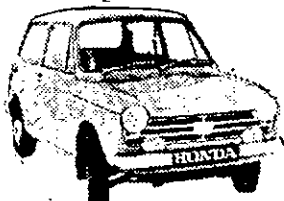

He said: "Most people live on the other side and find that area more aesthetically attractive."

"We have got to get away from the stigma attached to the western suburbs."

"It's not really a problem to get here and if we had enough staff, working conditions would be the same as anywhere else."

"Our pupils are just as bright and intelligent as you would find anywhere."

Alan bought the "Oakly" two weeks ago, the ninth in a series of vintage, veteran and classic cars he's owned. Alan a clerk at Williamstown Naval Dockyards says it would take a lot of money to separate him from the car. He's already had four offers to buy it. Alan says the car is a great conversation piece. "Wherever I go people ask me questions about it and want me to take them for a ride."

Hospital target draws closer

Just under half the money needed for the Altona Hospital's building extension project has been raised by voluntary contributions from clubs and committees.

Together, Altona Apex, Rotary, Lions and the ladies' auxiliary, together with Rotaract, have raised $7,000.

The Altona Lions latest project is the production of a recipe book, which they are selling for 30 cents.

Union Carbide recently donated $300 to help the project.

The hospital board is concerned with the spiralling costs of labor and materials, due to national wage rises, which add to the target figure of the extension project.

LITTLE ATHLETICS PRESENTATIONS

The presentation night of the Altona North Little Athletics Club will be held on April 17 at St. Luke's Hall.

All club members and their parents are invited. At the Victorian Championship for little athletics, held at Olympic Park last week, 10 Altona North members took part.

C. Bentley won a silver medal in the girls under 11, 800 metres walk, P. Clement won a bronze in the boys under 10, 800 metres walk and A. Clement was placed fifth in the boys under nine, 800 metres walk.

As A. Clement will still compete with the under nine's next season, this is a very creditable performance.

The woman behind the festival

"What's a Williamstown woman doing organising Altona's Art Festival?"

Mrs. Colville laughed at my surprise and said, "You've found out our little secret, the Arts Council even got me a post office box in Altona to disguise it."

Mrs Colville, of Morris Street, Williamstown, is co-ordinator of the festival.

"I think the Arts Council knew I'd organised the Victorian Dramatic Arts Festival for the Williamstown Little Theatre and thought I might be able to handle their festival."

Mrs. Colville, a resident of Williamstown for the past 20 years, is a most interesting woman. When you meet her, you feel she is absorbing every word you say, and storing it in the back of her mind.

She gives attention to detail in almost everything she does.

And she does quite a lot.

When she was given the job of organising the festival, Mrs. Colville received a letter from Altona council congratulating her on being chosen as co-ordinator.

It read in part "... the council wishes you every success ...". Enclosed was a copy of the previous festival programme.

That was her brief.

Apart from her dramatic interests she is the Williamstown president of Meals on Wheels, and chairman of the Victorian Dramatic League.

Her interest in theatre sprang from acting in plays in England, where she was born.

Later she felt she was more qualified to handle the administrative side and has been acting in this capacity for the Williamstown group for the past 20 years.

By Gary Smith

Her husband, Alexander, is also interested in the theatre and has been associated with the Williamstown theatre with his wife.

Indeed he used the balcony scene from Romeo and Juliet in real life recently.

Locked out of the house one night he took a ladder and climbed to the second-storey sitting room of his new home.

Mrs. Colville, who had just tidied up after a meeting, said she stood there horrified as the ladder stopped just near the window.

The worst part about it was when he went to open the door he found his front door key in his pocket.

Mrs. Colville said her husband really is a romantic. During the war he proposed to her by cable.

Mrs. Colville said, "He landed in London with the Merchant Marine and decided he wanted to marry me, so he sent me a reply paid telegram." They were later married in England.

Speaking more seriously Mrs. Colville said she was looking forward to the festival.

She said: "The festival aims at bringing the type of entertainment to Altona which usually can only be found in the city."

"And we're doing it at competitive prices too," said Mrs. Colville.

Trying not to pick favorites Mrs. Colville said she was looking forward to the performance by the Victorian Ballet Company particularly.

For the children, she said the highlight would probably be Nancy Cato's puppet theatre.

Mrs. Colville said the festival is aimed at providing entertainment for every member of the family.

The Pioneers THOMAS HARRINGTON SR.

Mr. Thomas Harrington, senior, is one of the original settlers still living in Altona.

He has an uncanny memory for a man who is almost 90 years old.

He said: "When I arrived in 1914 there was nothing here except about a dozen houses scattered all over the place. We soon clubbed together and formed the Progress Association in 1916.

"It was on the corner of Sarges and Blow streets, where the Baptist Church is.

"We had some wonderful old time dancing. None of this fancy stuff young people have today. They are just hopping around, not dancing at all."

During the first world war a military camp settled near the Harringtons' home and soldiers bought water and milk from them.

"Later there were a lot of dances on Saturday nights and euchre parties."

During the depression Mr. Harrington was sacked from the railways and his father was also out of work.

Mr. Harrington said: "It wasn't too bad.

"You could easily get a feed of rabbit or a feed of fish. The rabbits were everywhere and you only had to throw a line to get a fish."

"Fishing is very poor at present."

By MARIANN BYRON

As they lived near the best beach in the area, tourists were forever coming to ask for water to make tea with. But they liked visitors.

When Mr. Thomas Harrington junior attended school there were only about eight students.

He said: "We had two Harringtons, three Flemings and two Dukes and one other, whose name I can't remember, although my father probably does."

"The only work you could get locally was at the explosive magazine, unloading the powder boats and transferring their cargo to Deer Park."

"In my boyhood you had kerosene lamps and warmed yourself by wood fires. You didn't go out anywhere. The only enjoyment one had was going out on a Sunday School picnic to South Merang once a year."

"You played football and cricket among yourselves. I didn't know anything about tennis, basketball or hockey."

"Our first home was a tent under the cyprus trees. You never worried in those days about people sneaking up on you."

"Then we rented a place near the Church of England in Queen Street."

"It was pretty hard to get a higher education. There was no transport except a horse and cart from here to Newport. You couldn't do four miles on foot."

"Before we had a church, just us, ordinary people formed a church service every Sunday."

He said: "Until I was 18 or 19 I never saw the City. There was no need to go there."

Mr. Thomas Harrington Sr. is pictured with a photograph of himself and his son, taken in 1914.

"We finally got a picture show down here. We also had the Sun, Age, Argus and the Herald but you got the morning paper long after the city people got it."

"We only had two to three cows, because we never had the money to feed more. My wages were about 30/-."

"I got up at 5.00 a.m. to get to work and came home at 7.30 p.m."

Mr. Harrington junior has a son, a daughter and a grandchild.

Mr. Harrington senior said: "It was a struggle until we got a roof over our heads, but the rest was good."

This man who came from England to Altona, looked for adventure and instead he found contentment.

Needed licence for job - court told

A professional fisherman told Williamstown Court last week he would lose his livelihood if his driver's licence was cancelled.

George Edward Sears, of Cooper Street, West Preston, pleaded guilty to a charge of having driven with a blood alcohol level greater than .05 per cent.

Constable Kim Walsh, of Newport police, told the court he intercepted Sears driving very slowly down Melbourne Road, Newport, on January 13.

He said when Sears got out of his car, he was very unsteady on his feet.

Sears told him he had drunk 10 seven-ounce glasses of beer.

Constable Walsh said

Sears' blood alcohol reading was .120 per cent.

Sears told the court he needed his licence. He had been injured in a car accident, and fishing was the only way he could make a living.

He said he needed a car to get to his fishing spot as the nearest public transport was 14 miles away.

He added his wife was in hospital, and that neither of them received a pension.

Mr. F. Clancy SM told Sears that licence disqualification was mandatory for a drunk driving offence.

He cancelled Sears licence and disqualified him from driving for three months.

Sears was also fined $40 and given two months to pay.

Mr. Clancy refused Sears permission to drive home.

Given freely

The result of the Blood Bank's recent visit to Altona had been extremely gratifying, Cr. Carlsson informed Altona councillors last week.

He reported that while he was present he overheard a doctor advising a particular hospital that an operation could now be performed as a result of a particular blood grouping having been obtained.

The blood donation was urgently needed and thanks to the blood donors of Altona a patient was helped in his great need.

Cricketers had a rough time

Newport Cricket Club wants its practice wicket area re-graded and levelled during the winter months.

The club recently wrote to council pointing out that it had been prevented from having proper cricket practices at the Newport Market Street Reserve because of the condition of the bowlers' run-up area.

It said a pipeline was placed across the bowling run-up area, the ground around it had subsided, and bowlers attempting to bowl at full pace could be injured.

Grant

Cr. Burns moved at the last council meeting that $600 of the council's $1000 vote for cultural activities be made available for financing Arts Festival activities.

Cr. Lynch seconded the motion, which was passed by council.

The club also told council some paspalum grass had taken root on the oval's main wicket area, and it feared this might destroy the turf.

The club also thanked the council for its help during the past season.

School library tenders

Cr. Pat Lynch reported at the last Altona council meeting that tenders have been invited for the provision of a library building at Mount St. Joseph School.

The library would be somewhat similar to the recently opened one at St. Paul's College, he said.

A boys' choir sang at the marriage ceremony of Pauline Mary Doherty and Simon Simonides at St. Mary's Catholic Church, Williamstown, on February 13.

Pauline wore a coat of crystal organza over a gown of organza and lace. A coronet of pearls held her long veil and she carried roses.

The bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. Doherty, of Williamstown, and Simon is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. S. Simonides, of Altona North.

The bride was attended by Miss Mary Nuzzo, Miss Alison Munro, Miss Kathleen Spence and Miss Jenny Munro.

Best man was Mr. Tony Wyrbicki and groomsmen were Mr. James Doherty and Mr. Fred Postuma.

Sailing Club wants land

Williamstown Sailing Club has asked council to let it use land between the Sea Scouts' property and the south edge of the road extension of Stevedore Street.

Council holds this area on licence from the Harbour Trust.

The club wants to build a new boat staging, and have a large area of rigging boats.

It will be holding the Australian Kitty Catamaran championship over the 1971-72 Christmas-New Year period, and needs a large area to rig all the boats.

The sailing club has been chosen to hold the races because it won the last titles, held at Coffs Harbor, in New South Wales.

At its meeting on April 5, council decided to grant the club temporary use of part of the enclosed grassed area to the south of their club house as a boat storage and rigging area during the championships.

Cr. Bert Clancey moved that the request for Harbour Trust land should be referred to council's reserves committee.

He added that he thought council should not agree to it.

Probation for taking watch

A psychiatrist's report was submitted as part of a plea for leniency for a young St. Albans man in Williamstown Court last week.

Charlie Zammit, of View Street, St. Albans was charged with stolen a pocket watch, valued at $40, from a work mate at the Newport Railway Workshops, on January 28.

A Victorian Railways investigator, Graham Downes, told the court Zammit told him he found the watch outside a locker at the workshops.

Downes said Zammit and he went to look for the watch under some tin behind one of the workshop sheds, but it was not there.

He said Zammit then told him the watch was hidden in his bedroom at home.

Downes said Zammit told him the watch had been hanging on a chain from the pocket of a pair of trousers in one of the lockers.

Downes added that Zammit said he intended to bring the watch back in a couple of days.

Mr. S. Campbell (for Zammit) submitted that Zammit could not live in society on the same level as other people.

He said Zammit attended a special school in Footscray, but could not read or write.

Mr. Campbell told the court Zammit has asked to be moved from the section where he was working because his workmates continually teased him.

He submitted a report on Zammit's condition from a psychiatrist.

Mr. F. Clancy SM said

Zammit would probably benefit most from a period of supervision.

He placed him on probation for 12 months.

Zammit was ordered to pay $10 costs for an interpreter for a prosecution witness who was not called to give evidence.

The sub-contractor for the works, D'Avanzo Bros., expected to be finished next month.

House sewerage connections will begin to be made in June, 1971.

Arts festival opening

The mayor of Altona, Cr. Doug Grant, will open the city's Arts Festival next Saturday in the Civic Offices at 2 p.m.

He will also open the Esso Arts Collection.

This collection consists of 25 portraits, in oils and water color. They are valued at $40,000.

The most valuable painting of all will be displayed in the Council Chamber for security reasons.

After the Esso Art Exhibition, at 2.45 p.m., there will be a chamber music recital in the Civic Hall. Tickets will be on sale at the door.

The Esso Art Display will be open throughout the festival during the hours shown on the programme.

BEAUTY NOT BEAST

The recent meeting of the Australian Institute of Parks and Recreation, which was held in the Western Suburbs for the first time, proved to be a great success.

In a letter to Altona's mayor, Cr. D. Grant, the secretary of the institute, Mr. A. J. Reynolds, wrote:

"I was very pleased to hear all the favorable comments. Most of these comments were made by people who have always thought of the Western Suburbs as an ugly duckling."

"I thank you for your kindness in allowing us to have our meeting in your Centre and opening so many blind eyes."

Societies and clubs display

The Altona Historical Society is planning an unusual historical display for the forthcoming Arts Festival.

The atmosphere of the 1940s will be captured in a display of the clubs and societies which were formed at the time.

No one has seen the display before.

The museum has its entrance door on the Pier Street side of the Homestead, 128 Queen Street, Altona (opposite the Altona Public Library).

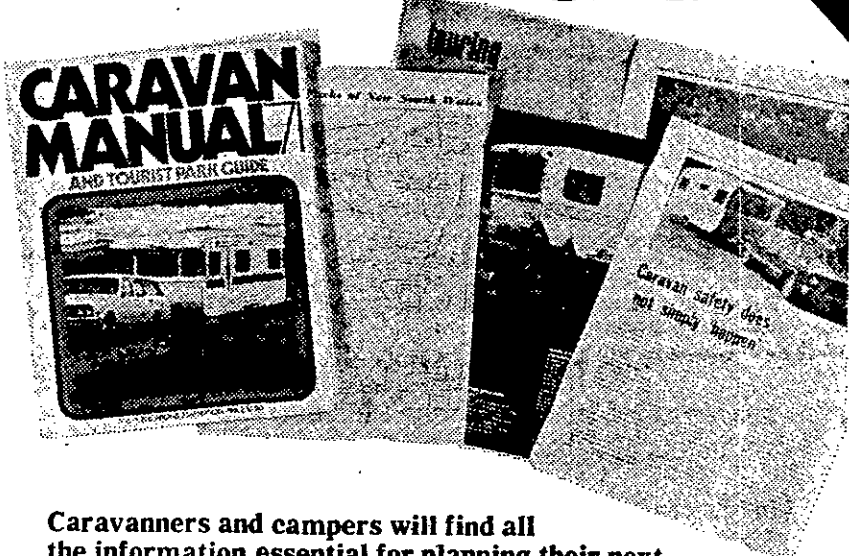

The museum will be open every Saturday morning and Sunday afternoon during the Festival.

The times are as follows:

Saturday, April 17, 10 a.m.-1 p.m.; Sunday, April 18, 2 p.m.-4.30 p.m.; Saturday, April 24, 10 a.m.-1 p.m.; Sunday, April 25, 2 p.m.-4.30 p.m.; Saturday, May 1, 10 a.m.-1 p.m.

Due to the timing of the Arts Festival, the Altona Historical Society will meet tonight in the Homestead at 8 p.m. instead of the normal third Wednesday in the month.

There are many reasons for choosing a play and they can range from snob value to keeping in favor with a glamorous actress.

Amateur theatrical and semi-professional groups are more often limited by the shortage of cash and suitable people. Some roles are easy to cast but there can be difficulties with others.

"Summer and Smoke" has had the usual production difficulties. One actress could not appear because she has family responsibilities; she was replaced by an actress who later became ill.

A desperate search found an actress, who, after reading the play, decided the part was too difficult and the distance to Williamstown too great.

At last we have found an actress who loves the part and who enjoys the rehearsals of this exciting play.

There are great difficulties in staging a play with so many scenes, so Bob Karl is using fascinating lighting effects and very little setting.

Good performers do not need elaborate settings.

And good performers you will see in "Summer and Smoke".

Well-known players including Les Terrill, June Lownds, Robyn McNally, Maggie McInnes, Mary Saunders, John Black, Bill Middlemass and many others come together to entertain you on Wednesday, April 28 to Saturday, May 8, at 2-4 Albert Street.

Bottled blood

Each year the communities demand for blood increases more and more blood donors are needed. Altona residents can give blood at the Altona Petrochemical Company between 9.45 and 3.15 p.m. on April 21.

Action against Omega Chem.

The Altona Town Clerk, Mr. J. Waters, reported to the last council meeting that a copy of a Victoria Police Report on the alleged discharge of fumes from the premises of Omega Chemicals at Paw Paw Road, Brooklyn, on March 12 had been received by council.

He said the report indicated that as a result of complaints from irate residents in the area of the factory, investigation had been made by Constable Grundy of the Kingsville Police Station.

Mr. E. Mifsud, a Health Inspector, had also been called.

Following the complaints operations had stopped at the factory, but had since recommenced.

Mr. Mifsud said he was aware that the Clean Air Section was recommending action against the company and he suggested council defer any action until the Health Department decided what action to take.

Cr. Crofts moved that the Town Clerk should approach the City Solicitor to determine the legal action the council may take under the provisions of the Health Act or any other relevant statute.

Cr. Stewart seconded the motion.

Camera corner

A VAPS lecture in May invites the Williamstown Camera Club to take a closer look at nature. Towards the end of May we have a visit to Footscray Camera Club, and an inter-club competition is planned.

A phone call to the President, Mr. R. Winduss (64 3705), or your local committee members, Mr. T. Young (397 6966) or Mrs. Wyatt (397 6027) will answer any enquiries about the camera club.

SINGERS SOCIETY

A growing and enthusiastic choir meets at the Newport Methodist Church on Monday nights.

The choir, which calls itself the Western Philharmonic Society has about 25 members in attendance at each rehearsal.

The conductor, Mr. Peter Pearce of Altona prepares programmes for special and seasonal occasions at the request of churches, hospitals and municipalities.

Those who would like further information about joining the society could contact the secretary, Mr. Cardiff Morgan, on 397 5046.

New court house

At the last Altona council meeting Cr. P. Crofts moved that the Attorney-General should be approached to provide a court house in the Altona North area.

He said the central location of this area and the availability of land should be pointed out to the Attorney-General.

Cr. Carlsson seconded the motion.

The monthly dance on April 17 may be the club's last if not enough members and friends turn up.

She told the members that she would give the rug to her granddaughter.

Mrs. Keershon, the club's excellent cook, was presented with a sum of money as a farewell gift from members at the last meeting.

Mrs. McDonald, one of the club's most familiar faces was welcomed back again at the same meeting.

Mr. J. Sutton, the club's former president is at present in Williamstown hospital.

FREEWAY
OPENING*Lower Yarra Freeway

Altona's mayor, Cr. Doug Grant reported to the last council meeting on his attendance at the official opening of the Lower Yarra Freeway western approaches by the Minister for Local Government, Mr. Hamer.

Cr. Grant said the four mile section highway which was now open to the public, has cost $14,000,000 including land purchase.

He said that it was most unfortunate that the Lower Yarra Bridge construction was not currently progressing, as the full benefits of the highway would not be revealed until this bridge crossing was available.

Cr. Grant commended the work of the Country Roads Board in planting some 15,000 trees in the four mile section of highway which had been opened.

He said the plants and grass on the embankments, would make the construction pleasing to the eyes.

HELPS TO

Cr. Richards reported to the last Altona council meeting that Altona gave the greatest financial support of any municipality in the western suburbs to the National Fitness Council.

Freedom of entry to the city will be granted to the Royal Australian Navy some time during Navy Week in October.

The council has decided not to allow any flats to be built at the back of existing houses, unless the two buildings can be incorporated in the one design. They decided to add this clause to their flat development interim policy at the last council meeting.

Williamstown CYMS Football Club will hold their 1970 premiership flag-raising ceremony this Saturday at 2.25 p.m. at Fearon Reserve.

Season starts next Sunday

Last Saturday the Diamond Valley League finalists of 1970, Macleod-Rosanna, visited Williamstown Oval and their Firsts, Seconds and Thirds played practice matches against the Seagulls, the last practice before the first round next Sunday.

The visitors are coached by former Brunswick player Kevin Dillon. Goodruck play from Barnes, and Dunlop with winning rovers Kevin Jackman and Erick Girardi quickly put the Gulls to the fore and a fine display by Mick Mulligan on the Half forward flank with five goals saw them with fine flowing system and excellent accurate kicking.

Dallas Patterson rucked well and a good display in front of goals by McGee from East Fremantle came under notice.

Young Hynes after playing most of the Second game also came under notice. A very much improved David Dey must give the Williamstown selectors great heart.

Brian Vaughan, Ian Johnson, Bob Percy and Brian Harvey all made themselves secure for positions in the side next Sunday against the Second Division Premiers.

The side could be — Backs — Johnson, Russell, O'Mara, Half backs — Vaughan, Percy, Harvey, Centre — Jackman, Half forwards — Mulligan, Lane, Smith, Forwards — van Liemp, Patterson, Girardi, Followers — Barnes, Dunlop, Rover — Dey or Thompson.

Reserves could be out of Graeme Hemley, who had been running at Stawell, Hynes, and whichever of my selected rovers is not played.

Williamstown should settle down into a good side.

The Seconds game resulted in an easy win 15.9.99 to 8.8.56. Players to come under notice were John McAleese, Wallace, Jackson, John van Liempd. Thirds also won well — 20.16 to 8.1.

Season starts next Sunday. Williamstown meet Coburg who were a big side in Second Division last season with excellent rovers and a great opening game can be assured. The Coburg team think that they can emulate the Williamstown effort of last season and go one better to take the 1971 Pennant. Season Tickets are on sale at the ground and they admit to all home and home games.

Players list: Last year J. Allard, P. Bahr, K. Barnes,

PRESENTATION NIGHT FOR THE LITTLES

John Meertens, and for the third successive year, Jill Gittens, were awarded North State's Perpetual Trophies for the Best Boy and the Best Girl of the Williamstown Centre at the presentation night in the Williamstown Town Hall last Friday.

These awards are based on points scored over the season.

In presenting the award to John, the Mayor of Williamstown, Cr. J. Byron, congratulated him and the Williamstown Centre on what they have done for the little athletes of the district.

Jill was not present to receive her award from the mayoress, Mrs. Byron.

She had left earlier to fly to Sydney for an interstate little athletics meeting.

The President, Mr. Jim Jamieson, congratulated the members on their enthusiasm and club spirit during the past season.

His President's Awards went to: Ann Falzon, Annmarie Jamieson (for outstanding performances during 1970/71) and Jennifer Hurwood, Diana Meertens, Shane Smith (for meritorious service over four years).

Representatives from the Williamstown Men's Athletic Club and the Women's Athletic Club presented trophies to the winners in each age group of the club awards, and these went to:

Under 9, Chris Hurwood, Maureen Jamieson; Under 10, Shane McNamara, Louise Jamieson; Under 11, Martin McNamara, Theresa McBroom and Under 12, John Meertens, Jill Gittens.

Mr. Laurie Johnson, a teacher at the North Williamstown Primary School presented a certificate to members tabling their best performances over the current season.

Souvenir pennant flags of their final year in little athletics were presented to each of the Under-12 age group.

Mr. Rod Silk, who officiated as Master of Ceremonies during the evening, reminded those present of the next General Meeting to be held in the Staff Room of the School on April 23 and of the Annual Meeting to be held on May 21.

Many of the present committee will be forced to retire in May due to varying reasons, and if the fine record of North State is to continue, it is necessary to have a full attendance at these meetings.

Premiership flag unfurling

The Williamstown CYMS Football Club's 1970 premiership flag is to be unfurled at the Fearon Reserve, Williamstown, on Saturday, April 17.

The ceremony will take place at 2.25 p.m.

All supporters and friends of the club will be welcome.

The 2nd Eighteen Flag will be unfurled at the Gray Reserve, Kororoit Creek Road, on Saturday, April 24 at 2.25 p.m.

This week's matches are:

1st Eighteen — Elwood at Fearon Reserve;

Elwood, who were 1969 premiers, slipped last year, but they have recruited very well and are sure to put up a great fight.

Both clubs were involved in an intense rivalry through the years and this should bring out the best in both teams.

2nd Eighteen — East Kew.

East Kew have a large list of players and are determined to win their first match.

ST. PAUL'S— BY A MILE

St. Paul's under-14 football team got away to a flying start this season. Last week they defeated North Footscray by 182 points, in a game which surely must be the win of all time.

Slow to start in the first quarter, they quickly made amends in the second, with the brilliant play of Burnett, Egan and Dawson.

St. Paul's coasted home to an easy victory in the second half, with best players — Egan, Pino, Burnett, Griffin, Dawson and Hayes.

Goal scorers: Burnett 6, Hayes 5, Dawson 5, Griffin 4, Egan 3, Barylzone 3, Pino 2 and Delaney 1.

Final scores were: St. Paul's 29.16—190; North Footscray 1.2—8.

Quiet a catch

Who would have thought Williamstown waters were hiding such colossal fish.

The eyes of experienced fishermen were popping out of their heads when 15-year-old Braybrook boy Robert Dennerley, of Ballarat Road, pulled in two snapper weighing 21 and 15 lb.

Robert caught the 21-lb. snapper only minutes after pulling in the one weighing 15 lb.

Robert was on the "Southern Cross," a 40-foot cabin cruiser, which makes trips from Williamstown Pier on Sundays.

The boat has been making the trips every Sunday for 15 years and regulars say it is the biggest snapper they can remember being caught in that time.

Robert has been getting up at 5 a.m. every Sunday for four years to get to the pier by 7.30 a.m. when the boat leaves.

He is a fishing fanatic. His mother said: "He has just about every rod you can buy and his bedroom is filled with fishhooks."

"Fishing is his life. He would rather fish than do anything else."

Robert's catches are certainly helping to feed his family. He has four brothers and his mother is unable to work.

The Friday before bringing home the snapper, he caught nine trout.

And his ambition when he leaves school? To own his own boat, of course, and maybe even to become a professional fisherman.
